MEMORANDUM FOR THE RECORD

SUBJECT: Meeting with William Miller, Staff Director of the Senate Select Committee

1. I met with Bill Miller for lunch today in the Senate Dining Room and spent an hour and forty-five minutes with him. We talked in general terms, for the most part, with me questioning him primarily on how he sees the Senate Select Committee's work to date.

2. At an opportune moment I suggested that this might be an appropriate occasion to reexamine the relationships built up during the investigation. Miller welcomed this because he felt that things were not working out the way they should. He said it is as if there were two separate investigations: one friendly and one antagonistic. In particular, I said one area that troubled people over here was the lack of information with respect to what was being said in Executive Sessions regarding Agency activities. Without such knowledge, I pointed out, there is a high potential for the Committee's misconception of underlying facts. Miller was willing to concede that something should be done along these lines and suggested that he and Senator Church meet with the Director and me to undertake such a reexamination.

3. One of the areas he suggested that I could be most helpful in resolving is that of covert studies. He was quite critical of the materials they were getting, but mindful of the problems we face, particularly with respect to [redacted]

4. It was left that, if such a reexamination is to take place, the Director should call Senator Church.
